

A 15x25 grid of black squares on a white background. The pattern is sparse and abstract, with squares distributed across the grid in a non-uniform manner. The pattern is roughly rectangular, with some missing squares creating a textured appearance. The distribution of squares is denser in the center and sparser towards the edges.

A 15x15 grid of squares. Each square is either white or gray. The gray squares form a noisy pattern that roughly outlines the letter 'A'. The noise is distributed across the grid, with some areas being more densely gray than others. The overall shape is centered and occupies most of the grid area.
